President's Message

Dear GSWS Members,

Wow! The past six months have been a whirlwind of activity for the GSWS artists, with three exhibits practically back-to-back, starting with the Associates Show at Capital Health in Trenton from April 4th thru May 13th, where two fine paintings were sold. Then on to Medford, NJ, for the Signature Members Exhibit at the MAC, which was up from June 18th thru July 25th. By July 30th we were in Princeton for our Annual Open Juried Exhibition at the D&R Greenway Land Trust; the show will be up through October 14th. I might add it is a show that has had excellent reviews, a couple of sales to date and two receptions! Please, if you haven't seen it, you should. It will make you proud of being associated with such a magnificent group of artists. I am extremely proud and thankful for all of you who participated in any way to create such beautiful exhibits over these past few months. The hard work done by so many volunteers to produce professional, outstanding exhibits is amazing and encouraging.

With the help of an exceptional and hard working GSWS board we are working to secure the future and growth of the GSWS. In the midst of all this exhibit activity, the board has been securing dates at future venues to exhibit in and to have educational demos, workshops, and art sales in. Promoting the GSWS, extending its membership, and creating a larger awareness of the outstanding artists within this organization are a priority.

We are sorry to note....

Upcoming:
The Garden State Watercolor Society will have a show at the Prallsville Mills in 2012. Details to follow in the next Newsletter.

Associate Member Don Jo Swanagan 80, died April 7 at Bayshore Community Hospital, Holmdel, NJ. You may remember his lovely painting in the Open Juried Show at Ellarslie in 2010. A resident of Cranbury for 52 years, Don was a scenic designer and worked for NBC early in his career and later as a freelance on such shows as The Nat King Cole Show; The Steve Allen Show; Specials for Women by Purex, which won an Emmy Award; Sing Along with Mitch Miller; The Bell Telephone Hour, and others. He was also involved in scenic design for such films as The Godfather I, Arthur, The Warriors, For Love of Ivy, Sweet Charity, To Kill a Cop, Speed is of the Essence, and The Owl and the Pussycat. . His love of Cranbury inspired his vocational work and personal art work. Our sympathy goes out to Don Jo's wife Virginia and his children and grandchildren

Medford Arts Center Show Candids

In Step with Nature

The Garden State Watercolor Society's 42nd Annual Open Juried Show is being held at the D & R Greenway Land Trust Johnson Education Center August 6th-October 15th in Princeton, NJ. The Center is open Mon-Fri, 10:00 am-4 pm. The exhibit was co-chaired by Fran Franklin and Joanne Amantea. The Artists' Reception and Awards Ceremony was held August 6th. A special thank you goes out to P.D. Swelt, our Hospitality Chairwoman, and her helpers, for the lavish refreshments. The Friends of D & R Greenway Land Trust Reception, to which the artists were especially invited, was August 19th. The jurors for the 42nd Annual were the esteemed artists Ken Hamilton and Gigi Burboeck. Frank Perry did the art for the postcard for this show; thank you, Frank. Robert Sakson was gracious enough to demonstrate on August 10th and Charles McVicker led a tour of the exhibit on August 17th. GSWS thanks Robert and Charles for the demo and the tour and also gives special thanks to the following people who helped make this exhibition possible: Exhibition Co-Chairs Fran Franklin and Joanne Amantea; Publicity Rita Brown; Website and Catalog Amy Phillips-Iversen; Catalogue Amy Phillips-Iversen; Photography for the Catalog Charles & Lucy McVicker; Hospitality P.D. Swelt.

Helping Fran and Joanne with the hanging were Karen Bannister, Barbara March, Pat Morgan, Carolyn Petersen, and P.D. Swelt. Rita Brown has done an outstanding job on publicity for all three shows: the Associates' Show, the Mac, and the Open Juried Show, taking the photos of the artists' paintings and sending them to the artists' home towns. Paintings sold were by Marie Zukoff and David Watson. Congratulations!

On behalf of the Exhibition Committee and our members, we would like to thank the D&R Greenway Land Trust staff and volunteers for their continued support of the arts and the Garden State Watercolor Society. We would also like to thank D&R Greenway's Diana Moore, Curator of the Marie L. Matthews Gallery, and also Linda J. Mead, President and Chief Executive Officer, for their work to bring this exhibition to the attention of so many on August 17th, at the special Friends Reception. This reception was very well attended, the hospitality was lovely, and quite a few GSWS artists also came and socialized with all.

Pickup for this show will be Saturday, October 15th, from 10 am until noon.

Over these past few months we have found that you are not shy about offering your ideas and suggestions on many subjects regarding GSWS. This is a very good and healthy thing and we welcome your suggestions, so keep them coming. One idea that our Vice President, Joanne Amantea, and I have been working on is the upgrading of our website and the possibility of having a GSWS Blog. A lot of you have suggested putting the newsletter in e-mail form too.

In this regard you will soon be receiving a questionnaire from our membership chair, Grace Chiarella. It would be so helpful and cost saving for our organizational purposes if you will kindly fill it in and return it to Grace promptly. I thank you in advance for your help with this effort to communicate with our members more efficiently.

Again, my heartfelt thanks to all of you for your generosity, your heart, and your marvelous talent!

Fran Franklin,
President, GSWS

MEMBER NEWS

As you read this, summer is nearing to its close; it sped by much too quickly. However, sit outside now with some iced tea or a chilled glass of wine and catch up with what your fellow artist friends are doing. Take a breather before what you know you have to do after Labor Day (i.e. Labor!)

JOANNE AMANTEA was selected as one of six artists to have a solo show in March 2012. As part of the NJ Emerging Artists Series 2011-2012, the Nilson Gallery in the Monmouth Museum provides a unique and exciting opportunity for New Jersey artists to showcase their work.

The artists selected for this Series represent the diversity of talent in the State and demonstrate their creativity in a wide variety of media. Information about the show can be found at <http://www.monmouthmuseum.org/emerging.html>

LINDA ARNOLD was in the Farmstead Arts inaugural show, as well as Art for Paws at Farmstead, and the Farmstead Art's Anniversary Show which Channel 12 covered for their News Program.
